

Author

Lecturer

Community
Activist

Elbert "Big Man Howard"

Visit his website: www.bigmanbpp.com

Available for purchase:

His self-published book: Panther on the Prowl

And his DVD: A History of the Black Panther Party
As Told by Elbert "Big Man" Howard

$18 each (incl s&h)

T-shirts $21 (incl s&h) (see website)

Send to: Elbert Howard,
PO Box 130, Forestville, CA 95436

One of the original founding members of the Black Panther Party...from 1966-74, Mr. Howard served as: Deputy Minister of Information, First Editor of the BPP Newspaper, member of the BPP Central Committee, Coordinator of National & International Support Committees, BPP spokesperson, and, as a Community Activist, helped organize and develop the Free Breakfast for Children Program, the Free Community Health Clinic and worked on the campaign to elect Bobby Seale as Mayor of Oakland, CA.

Available for Speaking Engagements,
Special Events, and Fundraisers
Honarium and transportation
Required

E-mail: bigman0138@aol.com

Phone: 901-921-0493