

Change

Change, you can believe in.
No bad how our leaders are;
There is always a worse scoundrel
Waiting in the wings.
Organize for change!
Vote for change!

We must first fight for the victory.
Then we must fight the victor
To make him do right.
Since the forces of evil will most certainly
Push him to do wrong.
We must vigorously push him to do right.

To make change,
We must fight a double battle.
We must win a double victory.
