A Reunion Message:

Welcome!

As you read this message, I hope that all things are well and good. I wish you nothing but the best! This Reunion is of a special time to unite and reconnect with one another. Although it has been a while, there has been an air of enthusiasm everywhere as we move nearer to our event this July. Thinking on the smiling faces that are ready to greet their OCS---family & friends though some have moved away and/or have never met, we remain strong. Sure, we of OCS---family & friends have grown but the importance of the OCS is still the same. It will not be a surprise at this Reunion to hear of similar life stories, lives touched and experiences made more memorable from the younger to the older generations. Through this connection, we must continue to be the OCS Reunion environment that nurtures and supports one another to succeed. The OCS Reunion Event Significance: It is about reaching out to OCS---family & friends and rekindling the spirit. This event will answer questions that may have popped into your mind from time to time. Where are they now? What are they doing? What do they look like? Let us even reminisce about your times as you meet and greet OCS---family & friends and make new connections. I hope to see you July 19th!
